

ESCAPE TO HAPPINESS

KICK-OFF MEETING IN ZAGORJE OB SAVI, SLOVENIA

KICK OFF MEETING

We were thrilled to hold the kick-off meeting for our Erasmus project, "Escape to Happiness," which took place in the beautiful town of Zagorje ob Savi, Slovenia. This event was an essential step in launching our collaborative efforts and ensuring that all partners were aligned and informed about the project's objectives and expectations.

THE KICK-OFF MEETING INCLUDED AN ENGAGING PROGRAM DESIGNED TO FOSTER TEAMWORK, ENHANCE OUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE PROJECT, AND ESTABLISH A CLEAR ROADMAP FOR OUR FUTURE WORK TOGETHER.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- We began with a comprehensive presentation of the work plan, outlining the project's goals, objectives, and timeline.
- To break the ice and build rapport among participants, we engaged in a fun and interactive social activity.
- A concise presentation provided essential information about the project, including deadlines, milestones, and expectations.
- Participants worked together on specific project themes, promoting collaboration and idea exchange.
- We provided a tutorial on how to fill out and submit timesheets, ensuring accurate record-keeping and streamlined administrative processes.
- We learned more about our host institution ZLU Zasavska ljudska univerza, their projects, and got acquainted with the premises through a guided tour.

- A hands-on workshop provided valuable experience and insights into the project's implementation.
- We wrapped up the meeting by summarizing the day's events, discussing future arrangements, and reviewing deadlines and commitments.

